

Panel Member Application Pack

Introduction

The Scottish Fundraising Adjudication Panel (“the Panel”) was established in December 2016 to oversee enhanced self-regulation of fundraising in Scotland. The core functions of the Panel are:

- to be responsible for fundraising standards in Scotland and
- to handle fundraising complaints related to Scottish registered charities.

The Panel works with a variety of stakeholders to achieve its functions; including working with the Fundraising Regulator in proposing and considering any amendments to the Code of Fundraising Practice and working with the Chartered Institute of Fundraising to promote fundraising standards of Scottish registered charities.

We are looking for new members to join the Panel who are committed to supporting the enhanced self-regulatory system of fundraising in Scotland and who will contribute to the Panel’s strategic thinking.

What are we looking for?

Applicants should have excellent communication skills with an ability to communicate effectively with people at all levels, in writing and verbally, be able to work effectively as part of a team and be able to analyse information to inform decision-making.

Applicants should also be able to contribute to the overall skillset of the Panel and, therefore, should also have skills in (or be looking to develop skills in) any of the following areas:

Personal Trait, Experience or Expertise	Essential / Desirable
Complaints management and Quality assurance - to be able to benchmark against given standards and ensure standards are observed and adhered to and carry out investigations and propose fair and reasoned responses to complainants.	Essential
To be able to identify and propose improvements in practice.	Essential

Experience of working in a cross-border charity (a charity that has dual registration with OSCR and CCEW)	Desirable
Experience of working in a small charity	Desirable
Strategy development	Desirable
Data Protection	Desirable
Charity Law	Desirable

We would encourage not just those with previous experience of working on a board to apply, but also those who wish to develop their skills in this area and are willing to learn

SCOTTISH FUNDRAISING ADJUDICATION PANEL

Appointment details

It is proposed that successful candidates will be appointed at the next meeting of the Panel. The successful candidates would be expected to attend this meeting.

Panel members may stand for a period of up to three years, with the possibility of re-appointment subject to evidence of effective performance and satisfying the skills, knowledge and personal qualities required at the time of re-appointment.

Time Commitment

The formal time commitment includes:

- attending the Panel's quarterly meetings in March, June, September, and December (each meeting lasts around four hours and are held during the day)
- participating in engagement events throughout the year*
- contributing to policy and consultations as they arise
- attendance at stakeholder meetings as and when required

* It is anticipated that any commitment to attend events will be limited to no more than 2 to 3 times a year, however, may require your participation for the full day.

Location

Meetings will take place via Microsoft Teams. In the event that in-person meetings resume these are likely to be held in Edinburgh and Glasgow but may also take place in other locations as appropriate.

Remuneration

Travel and subsistence costs incurred as a result of carrying out the duties associated with this appointment will be reimbursed.

Application process

Applicants should apply by completing the application form with a statement telling us about yourself, your experience and what you would bring to the role. You can download the application form here.

Applications should be sent to info@goodfundraising.scot by 11:59am on 5th September 2022.

Interviews will take place via Microsoft Teams (date and time to be agreed).

Please note, as the Panel's legal status is a Company, successful applicants will be appointed as Directors of the Company. Therefore, applicants must not be disqualified from being a Director at Companies House.
